

Investor Relations Policy

IR policy of the Auriga group

1. General

Auriga Industries A/S (Auriga) is the listed parent of Cheminova A/S, which constitutes the group's main activity. Auriga is listed on NASDAQ OMX, Copenhagen. Founded in 1936, the company is a global growth and development-oriented industrial group, which went public in 1986.

All communication from the group must support the overall picture of the company's mission, vision, values and strategy and thereby support the group's trustworthiness. In this context, it is important that the group is aware of its social responsibility with due regard being had to the group's CSR standards and Code of Business Principles.

The group's communication must ensure that all information about and from the group is:

- Timely (relevant in terms of time).
- Adequate (correct, relevant, clear and not misleading).
- Simultaneous (equal treatment of all stakeholders).
- Open.
- Easily accessible.

2. Investor Relations – Auriga

Auriga aims to provide investors, share analysts, stockbrokers and other stakeholders with ongoing financial information as well as information about the group's operations, targets and strategies as well as any other relevant aspects.

Open and active communication will ensure a satisfactory level of information for investors to be able to make investment decisions.

Being a listed company, Auriga strives to ensure that all stakeholders are given a true and proper view of the group. This is done by releasing, as soon as possible, simultaneously and in accordance with applicable Danish legislation for listed companies, information about the group which is presumed to affect the price formation of the Auriga share. Information to the market is prepared in Danish and English.

To ensure that Auriga fulfils its duty of disclosure concerning simultaneous release to the public in all EU/EØS countries, company announcements are released through GlobeNewswire, which is part of NASDAQ OMX, Copenhagen. Company announcements can also be read on Auriga's website, which contains identical content in Danish and English.

Investor Relations aims to be accessible to current and potential investors and other stakeholders while taking into account legislative requirements and corporate governance standards.

Investor Relations informs stakeholders of financial statements, expected developments, including special assumptions and uncertain factors, strategy, financial targets and results etc. To ensure uniform communication on the company's published financial results, outlook and other price-sensitive information, statements and comments on the above are made by the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the Board of Executives only.

Investor Relations Policy
